ENCINAL IN THE JET AGE

Because of our proximity to the Alameda Naval Air Station, Encinal has been in the Jet Age for the eight years of its life. We are so accustomed to the roar of jets that we hardly noticed Zinco, the little man from outer space, as he landed on our front lawn. Zinco, who has just opened the 1960 Horizon to Encinal in the Jet Age, can be found on all the division pages.

In selecting the theme "Encinal in the Jet Age," we acknowledge the challenge which has to met by our school and by each student in preparing for a world which becomes more complex each day.

DEDICATION

The yearbook staff of Encinal High School proudly and respectfully dedicates the 1960 Horizon to Mr. Louis Grant Brandes.

Mr. Brandes is vice-principal at Encinal High School, and is devoted to the duties and responsibilities of his office.

The man of the year was born in Troy, Missouri. To further his education, he attended the University of Missouri, Evansville College in Indiana, and the University of California. He majored in physical education and pre-med; however, his interest later centered on science and mathematics. As a result, he has been motivated to pen several books on these subjects.

Although he has the difficult job of administering discipline, Mr. Brandes is respected by all for his fairness and sincerity.

Mr. Brandes has been with Encinal High School since its birth in 1952. During its growth, he has been, and still remains, a symbol of strength to both faculty and students.

ADMINISTRATION

ENCINAL IS PREPARED FOR THE FUTURE

Strictly speaking, Encinal has been in the Jet Age ever since it opened. However, if by the Jet Age we mean the rapid changes and developments of the onrushing future, I believe that Encinal High School is in a singularly fortunate position.

We do live in a period of very rapid change, both in the United States and in the world. Changes in our society will surely require changes in our educational system. To meet the challenges of today and tomorrow a school must be flexible enough to adapt itself to new demands and conditions, yet endowed with enough ballast so that it does not swing wildly in every breeze.

Encinal High School measures up very well to these requirements. As a comparatively young school it is not too much tied by long-established traditional ways of doing things. Its faculty and administration are eager, and able to adapt quickly to new situations. Its student body has shown the ability to put first things first, and to accept and support the really important things in education.

In the Jet Age of the future, Encinal High School will continue to be what it is today—a fine educational institution.

Donald M. Roderick
Superintendent of Schools

PRINCIPAL PREDICTS ASTOUNDING FUTURE

As we look up at the sky a huge 707 jet transport blasts its way eastward. The distance between Alameda and New York has been shortened, not in miles but in hours. One hundred and ten years ago wagon trains coming westward took from three to six months to make the journey. A short time later, the pony express cut the time to thirty-three days. As the railroads laced their way across the continent, travel time was reduced to less than ten days. When the air age reached its zenith ten short years ago, we thought that the ultimate in speed of travel had been reached since it took only ten hours to span the continent, but now the jet age is upon us and our nation is traversed by jet transport in only four hours.

It is predicted that within the next ten years the trip from Alameda to New York will take less than five minutes. The decade ahead will be one of great growth and expansion, and one in which the population will soar. Production of consumer goods will reach a magnitude no one believed possible. Scientific break throughs will give us a world which will require a different standard of adjustment by its peoples. The citizen of 1970 will go to the Super-Super Market to find many new kinds of foods—milk that won't sour, fresh meats that remain unspoiled for weeks, dinners which electronic ovens will heat up in a few seconds.

We will be using typewriters that respond to the spoken word, computing machines that read, respond to verbal orders, and almost "think" for themselves, dishwashers which are ultrasonic, requiring no water or soap.

How does all of this affect you, the students of Encinal High School living in the year 1960? Your world of the future will be one which will require you to be better informed, more adaptable to change, more understanding of the problems of others, more skilled in science, mathematics and certainly more interested in the place of the humanities in our culture. Your high school will have to meet the challenge of preparing you for a fast changing world. Your teachers are constantly striving to keep up-to-date with the latest advancements in their fields of study so that they may, in turn, pass their knowledge on to you.

It is your responsibility to make the best of your time while you are in high school. Make it a point to learn for the future, for YOU are the future.

I wish to thank each member of the staff of our Horizon for the many hours of hard work and effort which have gone into this beautiful book. To Miss Holland, editorial advisor; Mr. Kline, business advisor; Gailene Rikard, editor; and Steve Brandom, business manager, I express my sincere appreciation for giving our student body and faculty a scintillating history of our school for 1960.

ADMINISTRATION MEETS CHALLENGE OF JET AGE

The Jet Age offers a challenge to every person; this is particularly true for teachers and instructors. Their challenge is not only to mold character in the student but also to inspire a quest for truth and knowledge.

The counselors and administrators are continually striving to meet the educational requirements of the Jet Age.

These higher standards are being met by an intensified program of counseling and a greater variety of college preparatory courses. Mr. Donald Bell, Mr. Grant Brandes, Miss Frances Shockey and Mr. Bruno Peinado head the administrative staff. It is their responsibility to see that the school functions efficiently.

Students are welcomed and encouraged in seeking vocational and curricular counseling. Parents are often called upon to aid the counselor and student program planning.

Encinal High School has four counselors who are constantly working to meet the needs of the students. This staff includes Mr. Joseph King, Mrs. Hulda Mark, Mr. Frank Hanna and Miss Annabel Wann.

FACULTY INITIATES NEW IDEA

The forty-four faculty members at Encinal High School have initiated a new program for the school year of 1959-1960. This program divides the students into three separate divisions, according to abilities and ambitions. These divisions include college preparatory, general and remedial courses. Thus far, this program includes English, mathematics, and some service courses.

While approximately 25 per cent of all the students enrolled at Encinal are following complete college preparatory courses, some 48 per cent are enrolled in partial college preparatory courses and some other type of study.

THE CLASS OF JUNE '60 GRADUATES 135

In the Jet Age life moves at a rapid pace and things at Encinal are no exception. For the members of the class of June, 1960, the past four years have flown by. Their many activities have forced this time to pass quickly. As Freshmen, they held noon dances and sold blue and white pens with "Encinal High School" on the side. With the money they made from these projects they put on their Soph Hop which they called, "Dinosaur Drag." As Juniors, they bought their sweaters which were white with black trim for the girls, and black with white trim for the boys. This was something new in Junior Sweaters since the boys' and girls' had always been the same in previous years.

The Junior Prom, "A Night To Remember," featured a fountain and hundreds of roses. As Seniors, they selected gold class rings and jackets of royal blue. The girls sported white blazers. Their play, "Arsenic and Old Lace," was the largest money-maker in the history of Encinal.

These activities have helped prepare these students for their lives as adults. They have been taught responsibility and loyalty as well as the subjects taught in the classroom. Therefore, the Jet-Age class of June, 1960, is being prepared for their lives in the Space-Age.

'ARSENIC AND OLD LACE'

Two elderly ladies, twelve corpses and a bottle of poisoned elderberry wine were among the ingredients which were mixed in the Senior Play. Add a pinch of love, provided by Mortimer and Elaine, a nephew who thinks he's Teddy Roosevelt, and another nephew who looks like Boris Karloff and you have "Arsenic and Old Lace" as presented by the class of June '60 on November 19 and 20.

The play proved to be a great success, thanks to the cast, the people backstage, the director, Mr. John Cotter, and student director, Margie Jorgensen, and the many students and parents who attended.

SENIOR

"Want to fight?"

When the freshmen enter high school, they feel as if they were the low rung on a ladder. They look up to the seniors with envy, and look forward to the privileges the seniors are allowed.

As high juniors they order their senior rings. These rings are a symbol of their school and the year they will graduate. When they begin their year as a senior, they take a course in civics which is required to graduate. Also as low seniors they present their senior play and pick their jackets.

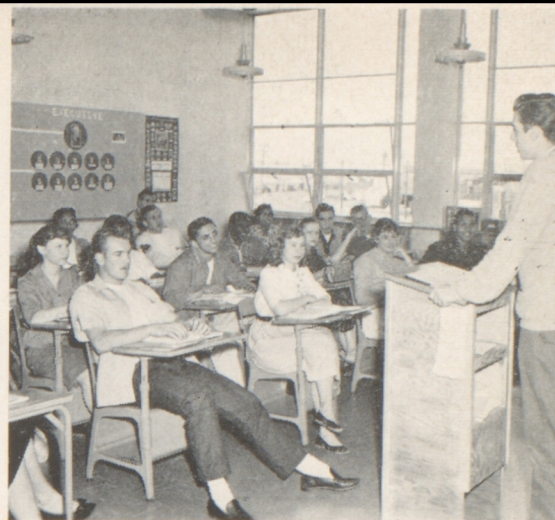

"It needs just a little more salt."

The latest in silverware?

PRIVILEGES

"Next Motion?"

"So I told him . . ."

High Seniors receive their jackets, another symbol of their school and the year they graduate. In recognition of their achievements several seniors are awarded the Bank of America Achievement Awards. Several jewelers present gifts of silver spoons and gold keys to the Seniors also. In the spring the Senior boys are allowed to take Boys Cooking.

June (or January) is the big month as far as the Seniors are concerned. They hold the mother-daughter tea, the Senior assembly, the banquet, the Senior ball, the Baccalaureate, and finally, the greatest privilege of all, GRADUATION.

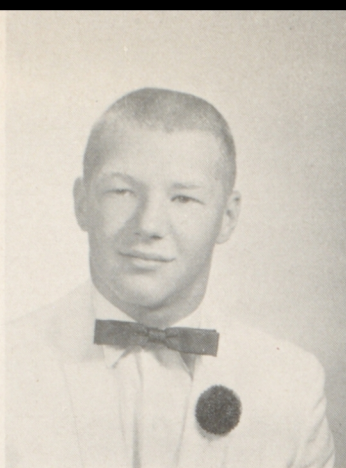

Waiting for yours?

Low Seniors Look Forward To January Graduation

The world of today is a world of young people, and the seniors of the graduating class of January, 1961, are preparing themselves for this world, and have been doing so for the past three and a half years. From their entrance into Encinal in January of 1957, they established their pattern for the future. As Freshmen they held many functions which helped them get acquainted. As Sophomores they held their Soph Hop, "Harvest Moon," and sold rooter's caps. They co-sponsored the Junior Prom, "A Night To Remember." They also purchased Junior sweaters of blue and gray. As Seniors they have received their rings and are planning their activities for this spring and next fall when they will be High Seniors.

A NIGHT OF ONE ACTS

The class of January, 1961, brought something new to Encinal this year. It put on a night of three one-act plays instead of one three-act play. It also inaugurated new times for the plays to be presented. They were put on Friday, April 1st, and Saturday, April 2nd.

The plays were "Death Writes A Message," "The Third Lesson," and "Counted Out." Both "Death Writes A Message" and "The Third Lesson" starred four people. "Counted Out" featured a cast of three members. Mr. John Cotter directed the plays, as usual, with the help of student director Lois Beard, prompter Maurine Jenkins, and understudy Kathy Aldrich. The plays, as expected, were a success.

Jazzy Juniors Present 'Twilight Sonata'

The Class of June, 1961, started the year actively by presenting "Mood Indigo," the first after school dance ever given at Encinal. There was a Cha-Cha contest, and cup cakes were sold.

The Junior Prom was a big event for the Junior Class. The name was "Twilight Sonata" and the center piece was a Japanese Tea Garden, with a fountain and floral arrangements. It was held on April 29, from nine until twelve in the E.H.S. Gym.

This class received their class pins early in the spring semester. The pins are gold with a background of blue. The class members also purchased class membership cards, another first for Encinal.

Fall President, Carol Freeman, conducts class meeting.

Jivey Juniors Plan After-School Dance

During the fall semester of this year, the Class of January, 1962, earned money by presenting "Abstraction in Blue," their Soph Hop. The decorations were modernistic shapes and designs in various shades of blue.

In the spring they had a cup cake sale, and on May 25 they sponsored an after-school dance.

Like the Class of June 1961, they also received Junior pins.

Sophisticated Sophs Display School Spirit

The Class of June, 1962, displayed school spirit by participating in many activities.

At the beginning of the fall semester, a class cheerleading team was organized under the leadership of Carolyn Ragagnin, class head cheerleader. The team consisted of seven girls who led yells and encouraged spirit at the Frosh-Soph football games.

To raise money, the class had an after-school dance in December, before Christmas Vacation. They also had the usual cup cake sales.

"Harbor Lights," their Soph Hop, highlighted their spring semester. Pictures were taken of the couples in a canoe which was part of the decorations. Reports showed that all the people in attendance thoroughly enjoyed the evening.

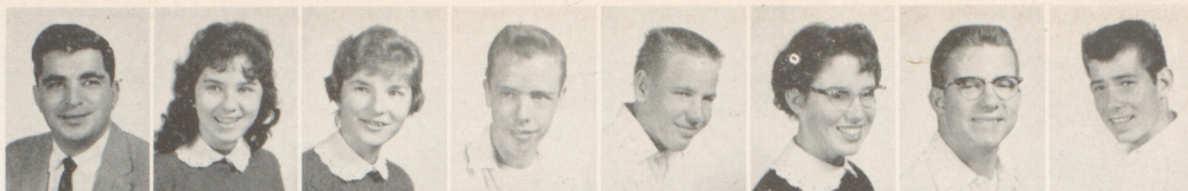

C. Antonali, B. Hullett, S. White, C. Ragagnin, P. Faria, S. Williams, and P. Kelly lead yells at Soph-Frosh game.

Frightened Freshmen Enter a New World

The Class of June, 1963, got a speedy start in the activities of Encinal. They had an after-school dance and party for the class members. The party was put on by the three advisories which won monetary prizes for P.T.A. memberships. The three advisories were as follows: first, Mr. Cotter's; second, Mr. Foster's; and third, Mr. Gorman's.

They, along with the Sophomores, showed school spirit at the Frosh-Soph games by presenting yells and selling refreshments to attending students

At every class meeting they do the following yell:

On the shores of Gitchy-goomy,
By the shining, big, blue sea,
The best class at Encinal,
Is the class of '63.

This yell was written by one of the class members.

Freshmen sell snow-cones at Frosh-Soph game.

CAMPUS LIFE

American Field Service Student Charms Student Body

Virginia, smiling and excited, enters Encinal.

Our American Field Service student, Virginia Villamor, from the Philippine Islands, came to visit Encinal High in her senior year. She brought with her a friendly attitude, a smile, and a kind word for everyone.

Mary Appleyard, from England, our first American Field student, was so well received by our student body last year that continued efforts are being made to insure a student each year.

Mr. Peinado, as liaison officer of the Alameda Chapter of the American Field Service, has contributed much time and effort in seeing that our school has had an American Field student last year and this year. The entire community, following the lead of the P.T.A., has contributed to the American Field Service Fund.

Virginia models her native costume.

Virginia and Laurie Slingerup enjoy a friendly chat.

ENCINAL FACES THE FUTURE

Encinal High School, meeting the challenge of the Jet Age, offers a wide variety of subjects and activities. As some students are preparing themselves for college, college prep courses as well as commercial courses are offered.

ENCINAL STUDENTS

"Well, I'm enjoying myself!"

"My, isn't this cozy?"

KAREN SNYDER,
OUR 1959 FOOTBALL QUEEN

Presentation of Football Queen and Attendants: Mr. Bell, Delores Cruz, Karen Snyder, Joan LeMoine, and Gailene Rikard.

Here is an example of how great ideas are born: It seems there wasn't anything originally planned for this page so we thought it would be nice to have a football queen. So, we had to choose some candidates and get someone to sponsor a dance for us. It just so happened that Mr. Reeves' 2B class was having a dance, and he agreed to let our queen reign over the dance. Our queen was Karen Snyder and her attendants were Joan LeMoine, Gailene Rikard, Roberta Quail, Dolores Cruz, and Daphne Robinson. We hope we have set a precedent.

"Here comes the queen!"

EVERYONE LOVES A FOOTBALL GAME

Encinal students are proud of their school; naturally, they like to get behind their teams and cheer them on to victory. We see, at the top of the page, some of the spectators at the Alameda versus Encinal football game. At the bottom, students are waiting to get on the bus to Willits.

To keep up the good spirits we needed something a little extra. This came about with the performance of the majorettes and flag whirlers, seen here during half-time of the Alameda-Encinal game.

"Let's get this show on the road."

"Oh well, there's always a next time."

ENCINAL OFFERS

The following participated in a safety program during an assembly: Arthur Treadwell, Alameda City Police; Sergeant John Goodman, State Patrol; Tom Hill, National Safety Council; Roger Hooper, Local Insurance Agent; Lieutenant Norman Estes, Alameda Fire Prevention; Louise McWilliams, Moderator; Charles Foster, Panelist.

These are a few places around our school. Some of the places are quite busy with students and noisy chatter, while other places call for silence and study. We even see the Modern Dance class in a quiet study.

A combo consisting of Charles Baca, Ray Gladwill,
Leo Goding, and John Heibel.

Occasionally, we also have entertainment from our own school. An example of this is Leo Goding, John Heibel, Charles Baca and Ray Gladwill doing a number for the assembly. We have other talent too, of course. . . . We're just trying to find it.

James Berry, piano; Leo Goding, bass,
John Ronald, drums.

"Let's take it from the top."

"Look, Ma! NO cavities."

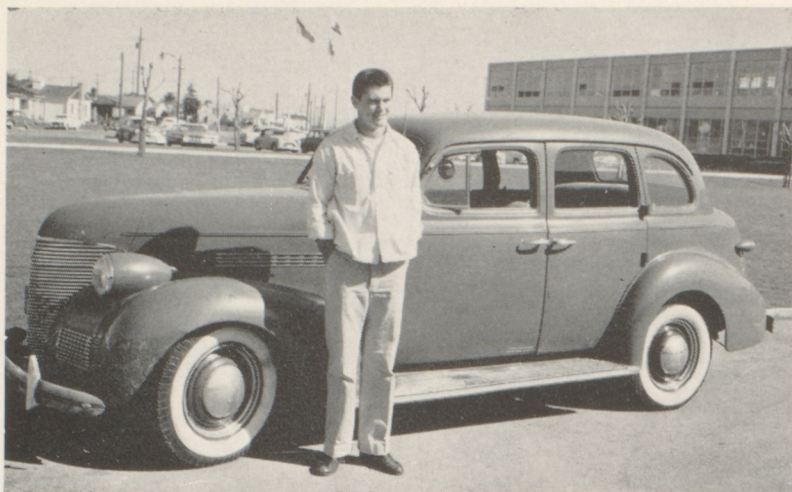

We see here entertainment from several assemblies. We enjoyed the Sixth Army Band, Karen Snyder in a skit, and entertainment from Albany High School. It seems the band from Albany High had quite a time getting packed into their car. Hope they made it home.

STUDENT BODY OFFICERS

The presidents of our student body conducted our student assemblies and worked hand in hand with our principal, Mr. Bell, at student council meetings.

The vice-presidents for the fall and spring semesters encouraged student entertainment and presided over the assembly entertainment, and enjoyed being the chairmen of the opening dances.

Concise and accurate minutes were kept by our secretaries. These minutes were read at every meeting.

Besides giving a report on our income and expenditures, our treasurers tried to obtain 100 per cent student body card sales.

Our head cheerleaders were always prepared for rallies and games, and encouraged attendance for our games.

'FIRSTS' IN ASSEMBLIES

This year's political assembly was another "first" in Encinal's history. The meeting was conducted by the chief counselors of the Boards of Control. A warning light told the speakers when they had 15 seconds of speaking time left. This gave each candidate and his sponsor an equal opportunity for his speech.

Our other assemblies, which were held every week in the spring, included student talent, A.C.A.L. talent, rallies, and an Army band. Mr. Cotte's drama class presented plays on two different occasions. Also, as a special guest, we had the well known folksinger George Alexander.

Future President, Dennis Chavez, gives successful campaign speech.

The Student-Faculty Committee discusses recent assemblies and ways to improve future ones.

The Student-Faculty Committee continued its operations in the spring semester. It was founded in the fall in order to discuss the assemblies and ways to improve them. It also outlined, each week, the assembly which would be presented the next week.

The Student Council sponsored its opening dance, "After Hours," which followed the newly formed tradition of stag or drag. At this dance, a school combo performed as the entertainment for the evening.

Beginning this fall, a new system was set up for student council meetings. The new meeting time is from 8:30 until 9:05, and meetings are in the school library.

The traditional "Frosh" welcome dance was held three weeks after school opened. It was the first dance at Encinal to be stag or drag.

The Fall Student Council also reviewed proposals suggested by the low senior civics classes.

Through the efforts of the Boards of Control, Encinal maintained its fine reputation. Their duties range from library supervision to hall duty.

Under the direction of John Heibel and Karlene Stevens, the fall chief counselors, B.O.C. members were stationed at strategic points to maintain order at the football games.

C.S.F. FOCUSES ATTENTION ON SCHOLARSHIPS

The California Scholarship Federation, more commonly known as the C.S.F., has provided for E.H.S. students of high scholastic standing, a program both educational and entertaining.

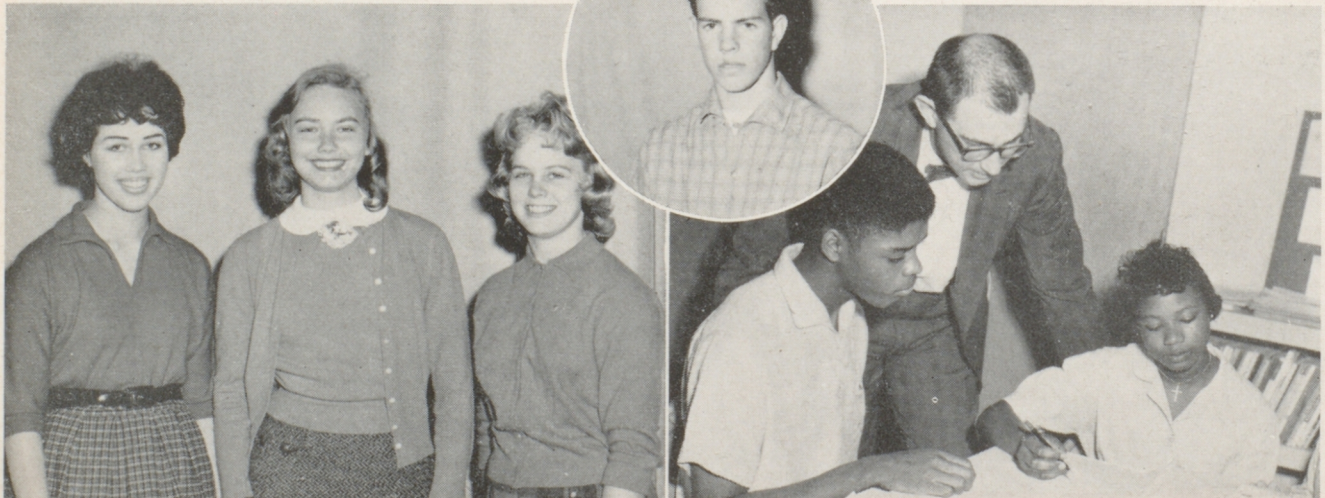

The C.S.F. members have continued their tutoring service, much to the relief of some students.

Another activity of this club was a breakfast held in the fall term. These activities, plus other interesting parties and excursions, provide a well-rounded and enjoyable program.

MORE HONOR TO HONOR STUDENTS

An editorial appeared in the Echo stating that if athletes receive honor, honor students should receive some honor also. The 182 students who made the honor roll in the spring semester were eligible for Encinal's honor society, Sigma Epsilon. At an assembly soon after that, all the honor students were asked to stand, thereby giving credit where credit was due.

One of the outstanding events which Sigma Epsilon sponsored was an after-school dance, titled "Spring Fever."

This year the Latin Club joined a nationwide organization for students taking the language, the Junior Classical League. The pins, which they received in January, are silver with the initials J.C.L. with a torch behind them. The Latin Club also has exclusive rights to pizza sales at school.

The "Pottus Luccus," as the Roman Banquet was called this year, observed two dates: the day that Rome was founded 2713 years ago and it was also the final day of "National Latin Week." The closing social activity was the annual swim and picnic attended by members of all the foreign language classes.

CHI MU PRESENTS BILL WOOD

Chi Mu followed the trend set by several other clubs and classes by presenting an after-school dance. But, Chi Mu went one step farther. They had, for their host, Bill Wood, a disc jockey on KEWB. This dance, therefore, proved to be very successful. The name given to the dance was appropriately, "Wood Frolic."

THESPIANS ENTERTAIN STUDENT BODY

The Thespians, with the drama classes, have been busy with off-campus activities. They saw "Kiss Me Kate" at San Francisco State. Also at State, they saw the Campus Radio and Television Department.

At an assembly in January, the Drama Department put on a play titled "Suppressed Desires" for the student body. It was also presented for the Adelphians, and the P.T.A.

G.A. PRESENTS FASHION

SHOW FOR STUDENT BODY

Every girl at Encinal has the privilege of being a member of the Girls' Association. Membership cards are sold every semester for 10 cents; but, whether or not a girl buys a card, she still attends the meeting held during long advisory.

There were two "firsts" in G.A.'s history this year: Carroll Duplessis, pictured above, was the first boy to perform for the organization. The annual fashion show, which is sponsored by G.A., was presented as an assembly, with the Modern Dance group participating as entertainment.

CHEERLEADER'S CLUB PROMOTES BETTER RALLIES

This year, for the first time, the Cheerleaders' Club chose new pom-pom girls for the spring semester. They also presented the first after-school rally and dance. Their new outfits were short, white pleated skirts with Royal blue vests. Also, in the spring, Encinal again had a boy head cheerleader. During the fall semester, our school was led by five girl cheerleaders.

Each member received a blue and white tie with Encinal High School printed in gold, when she paid her dues.

ECHO FEATURE WINS NATIONAL AWARD

The Echo won a national award in the field of high school journalism.

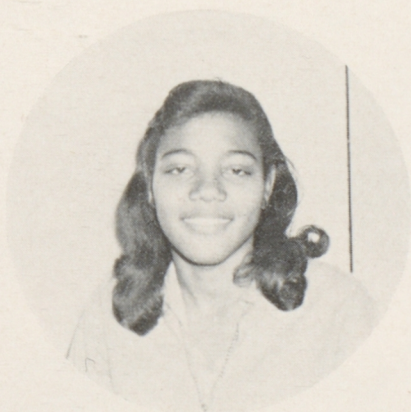

The contest was the nationwide School Press Project of the National Tuberculosis and Health Association. The winning edition of the Echo was published November 6. The winning articles were written on the subject of community health agencies.

The Echo was one of nine newspapers selected for national competition in the contest for Alameda County. Forty-five entries were in the state competition.

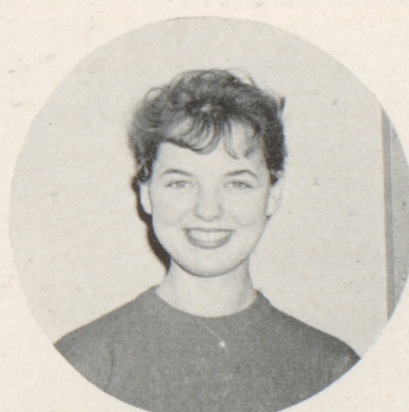

Cabot Brown, M.D., president of the California Tuberculosis and Health Association, expressed his feelings in a letter written to Mr. Reilly.

"On behalf of the board of directors of the California Tuberculosis and Health Association, and the members of your own local county tuberculosis association, may I congratulate you and the students involved in the fine job which they did in this annual educational project," Dr. Brown wrote.

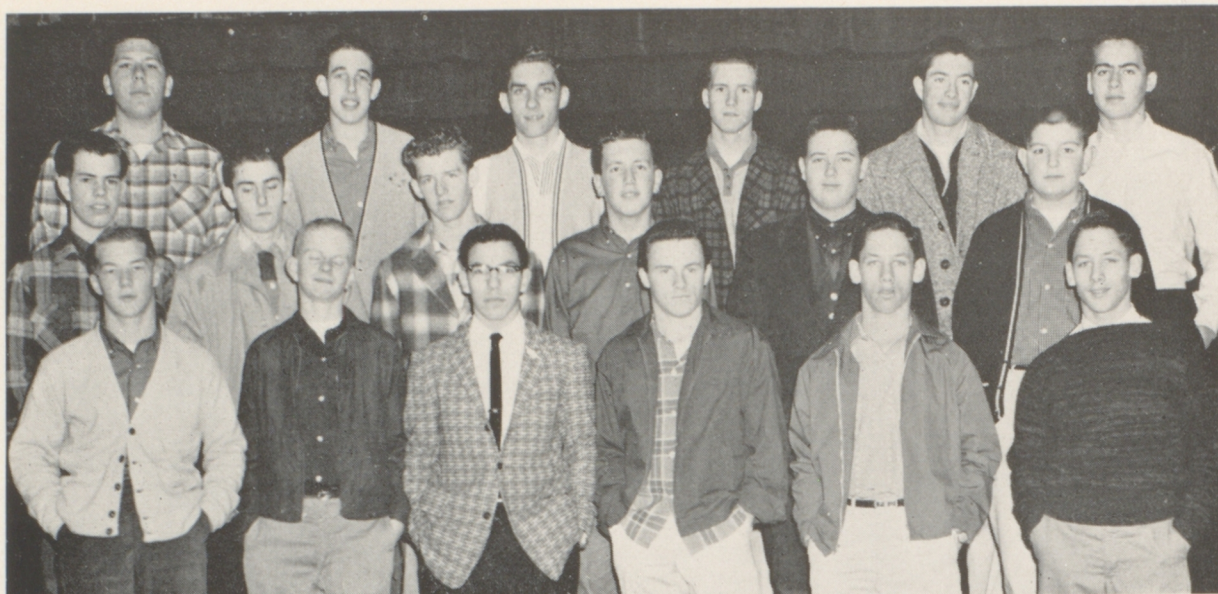

The award from the National Tuberculosis and Health Association was presented to Lois Beard for the Echo during an assembly.—Reprinted from the Echo

KEY CLUB DECORATES SOUTH SHORE

The Key Club is one of our most active clubs. Being a baby brother of the Kiwanis Club keeps them busy doing service projects for the community.

They decorated for the South Shore Business Association and had car washes. It isn't all work and no play for the Key Club, though, for they planned a winter snow trip to Sonora and as assembly which featured Hernando, the magician.

Under the direction of Miss Sibley, the Jr. Red Cross began its work soon after school started by making megaphones for the Alameda-Encinal football game and selling them for five cents each.

This year its membership grew by a large number; this provided more ideas and suggestions for beneficial projects. One activity was making decorations for a hospital at Easter time.

G.A.A. OFFERS SPECIAL SPORTS

The main activity of G.A.A. this year was collecting money for the Foreign Exchange Program by selling mints at Christmas.

They also had their annual Christmas party. The tree was decorated with ornaments bearing the names of members. They exchanged gifts while having cookies and ice-cream.

Some of the sports which only G.A.A. members are entitled to participate in are badminton, tennis, swimming, ping pong, and archery.

Mr. Hewitt, band leader and teacher, formerly a professional trombone player who played with Woody Herman and His Herd, played with the band, giving it a polished touch.

HARD WORK KEY TO FOOTBALL SEASON

Coach Jim Marberry described the 1960 Jet Football Team as one of the hardest working groups he had ever coached. Although they lacked experience, they made up for it in their desire to win. The Jets in pre-season predictions were picked to finish near the bottom of the league, but at the end of the season they were in third place in the N.A.C.A.L. Many players had little or no varsity experience before this year, and this handicapped them in the early part of the season. However, in the last three games the team finished strong. Curt Reed and Tom White climaxed a great season by being picked for the all-N.A.C.A.L. team.

JUNIOR VARSITY

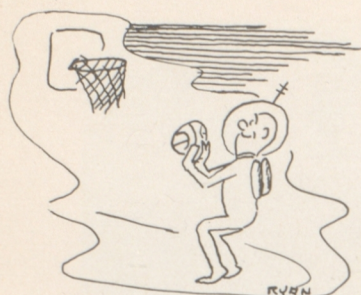

Coach George Reed feels the 1959 Junior Varsity team was successful in preparing many boys for the varsity squad. The team, having many of the same troubles experienced by the varsity, finished the season a greatly improved team. Hampered by the loss of many first stringers to the varsity, they were outweighed 15 pounds per man by the other teams in the league. At the end of the season they had won two, tied two, and lost three.

FROSH-SOPH

The main purpose of Encinal's Frosh-Soph team is to teach the tactics of football to boys who have never played before. Coach Foster believes that the '59 squad accomplished this purpose, and he named Jim Rhodes, Willie Green, and Tim Bowers as the three most outstanding players.

VARSITY CAGERS PLAY TOUGH SCHEDULE

Encinal's Varsity Basketball Team finished the season with an 11 won and 14 lost record. The Jets finished in fourth place in the N.A.C.A.L. with five wins and seven losses. Although they did not compile a winning season, they upset several teams and had many close games. This year a new tradition was started with the first playing of the Alumni Game in which the players from former years played the varsity.

WRESTLERS COMPETE IN FIRST SEASON

In the first season of wrestling at Encinal High School, the main emphasis was on experience. Most of the mat men had no prior experience in wrestling. The Jets competed in four meets losing all four. The four teams they met were: Hayward, Antioch, Sunset, and Arroyo. They also competed in the A.C.A.L. finals where Gary Barker, Robert Perata, and Mario Mariani represented Encinal in the championships. Mario Mariani won a second place in the heavyweight division. The Encinal wrestlers give the promise of having a very strong team next season when their experience will aid them.

J.V.'s GAIN EXPERIENCE

The Junior Varsity, under the coaching of Paul Foster, had a season record of 10 wins and 11 losses. In league play, however, they had a much better record of seven wins and five losses. Competing against schools with twice and sometimes three times their enrollment, the J.V.'s were under a severe handicap and proved that they had a great team.

FROSH-SOPH LOSES ONLY TWO GAMES

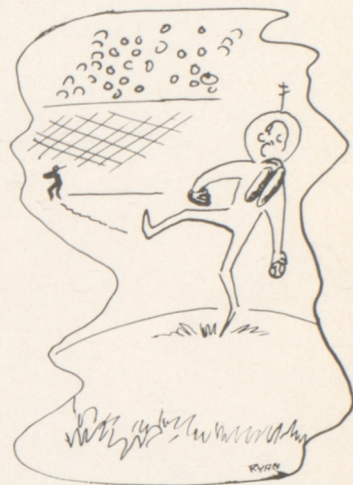

The freshman basketball team, coached by Jim Marberry, had one of the most successful seasons in the school's history. Compiling an overall record of 22 wins and two losses, the Frosh team promises to be future Varsity and J.V. greats. The Jets took a second place in the Hamilton Basketball Tournament and lost their only two games by one point each.

JETS LEAD LEAGUE

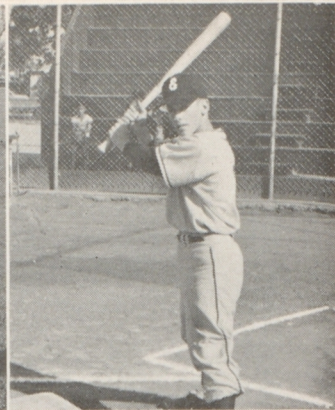

As the last deadline for the Horizon arrived, the Jet Varsity, under Coach Reed, was leading the league with no losses. Up to that time they had only lost two pre-season practice games. Tom White and Jerry Shaw, Encinal's two top pitchers, had yet to lose a game. Encinal was picked to finish very low in the league standings, but the Jets have already proved the experts wrong by staging several upset games.

JUNIOR VARSITY GAINS EXPERIENCE

This season's J.V. baseball team gained much experience under the able coaching of John Matula. Although they did not compile a sensational win record, the J.V.'s developed many boys for varsity competition.

VARSITY TRACK FEATURES A WELL BALANCED TEAM

As Encinal's track season neared its end, our varsity track team had only lost three meets in a very tough schedule. The Jets had a well-balanced team that was a threat in every event. The team also participated in the Martinez Relays where it took seven first places out of ten events, while setting three new records in the high jump relay, the 880 yard relay, and the 480 yard low hurdles, respectively. However, the final score showed that Encinal had lost by only one point. The Jets will compete in the A.C.A.L. finals at the end of the season and give the promise of finishing strong in many of the events. Under the fine coaching of George Cadwell, the varsity should finish the season strong.

B TRACKMEN WIN EL CERRITO RELAYS

Encinal's B track team compiled an excellent won and lost record. As of May 1, they had only lost one meet. Highlight of the season was the winning of the El Cerrito Relays. The B's are developing many fine athletes for the varsity. They are also favored to take the A.C.A.L. title at the end of the season.

In the second season of cross-country at Encinal, the varsity took a ninth place in the A.C.A.L. finals and a sixth place at the North Coast Section meet. This was not a season of many wins, but many runners gained experience and endurance.

The Frosh-Soph Team also took a ninth place in the A.C.A.L. meet. Their runners also show promise for next year.

GIRLS PARTICIPATE IN NEW SPORTS

Besides playing volleyball, softball, and basketball, the girls sports department began instructing the classes in the rudiments of track and field events. This was the first year of that type of sport. Folk-dancing was also enjoyed by the girls. Mrs. Hambric, Mrs. De La Vergne, and Mrs. Harriman comprised the girls' sports department.

Seventh period is reserved for girls in G..AA. This year the girls participated in bowling, swimming, archery and tennis. Modern dance was also offered to some of the girls.
